TWO LOST SOULS
December 18th during Chapel Period.

TWO LOST SOULS, written by Miss Betty J. Bartlett, associate Professor of Speech, is a choric drama. A cast of over fifty students will tell the story of the coming of the Christ Child.

Through a union of the dance, drama, music and color, the talents of the Speech Department, Physical Education Department, Art Department, and Home Economic Department will make Columbia College's Christmas rendition of TWO LOST SOULS an interesting experience for everyone.
